

ITALIAN PASSION

Style and innovation to meet Italian flair in a range of furniture, wardrobes and kitchens.

Italy is a country famous for producing leaders in style and innovators in design, and for its exceptional manufacturing standards.

Studio Italia has a typically Italian passion for delivering expert Italian design and craftsmanship to discerning New Zealanders.

The company prides itself on exclusively representing leading furniture design brands such as Flexform, Zanotta, Poliform, Varenna Kitchen and other famous names – all of which you can find on show at the Studio Italia showroom.

The showroom offers an elegant, boutique shopping experience; a place to browse among the best examples of quality Italian designer furniture, wardrobes and kitchens in New Zealand. There's a wide selection of styles for indoors and out – matched by impeccable service and knowledgeable advice.

Flexform, for example, is now an instantly recognised brand around the world and the furniture featured in our photographs at right is a good example, made by Flexform Italia in a small town in northern Italy renowned for its high-quality furniture.

This page: Clean, unfussy lines in a selection of large sofa configurations, plus single pieces of furniture, from Flexform Italia. Elegant and adaptable, sizes and configurations allow for customisation in a range of high-quality timber veneers and solid timber finishes.

Above: Sleek and simple – The Twelve Kitchen design by Carlo Colombo for Varenna Poliform comes complete with electric drawers, glossy lacquer doors and warm Bruno Oak finish.
 Below: Kyton kitchen design by CR&S Varenna for Poliform makes a striking statement with light/dark contrast. The gulf island layout allows for complete integration with living areas.

Above: Ubik wardrobe by Poliform. Wardrobes can be adapted to maximise any space and be equipped with myriad accessories: shelves, rails, pull-out trouser holders, tie and belt dividers, drawers and storage.

Right: Poliform's Senzafine Wardrobe. Internal structures are protected with easy-clean, easy-care melamine. Doors range from simple and minimal to exquisite edge and frame details in finishes including lacquer, glass, timber and leather.
