design: Christophe Pillet
tecnologia: Busnelli_Lab

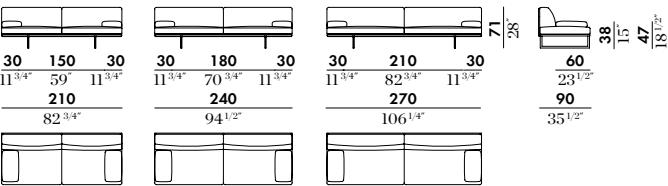

È una proposta dalle forme essenziali in perfetto equilibrio tra design minimale, estrema eleganza e comfort, con cuscino schienale basso o alto. La struttura è in profilato di metallo opportunamente rinforzato e pannello di legno. Il molleggio di seduta è disposto da cinghie elastiche incrociate. L'imbottitura è in poliuretano espanso senza C.F.C. La composizione dei cuscini seduta e schienale è in piuma d'oca selezionata e sterilizzata "Assopiuma" con anima portante in poliuretano espanso indeformabile senza C.F.C. Il piedino e la cornice perimetrale sono in metallo trafilato nella finitura bronzo satinato. Il cuscino bracciolo, completamente libero, permette di personalizzare e modificare la componibilità del divano. Inoltre gli elementi nelle varie componibilità sono disponibili anche con bracciolo alto o terminale angolare. Il terminale panca, sempre rivestito, può essere dotato di un piano d'appoggio in marmo calacatta oro, emperador e portoro o in cuoio nero. Completamente sfoderabile, esclusa la versione in pelle.

It is a proposal from the essential forms in perfect equilibrium among minimal design, extreme elegance and comfort, with low or high backrest cushion. The structure is in metal section, properly reinforced and panel of multilayer wood. The spring system of the seat is made of crossed elastic belts. The padding is in C.F.C.-free, nondeformable polyurethane foam. The composition of the seat and back cushions is in selected and sterilized goose feather "Assopiuma" with supporting heart in C.F.C.-free, non-deformable polyurethane foam. The feet and the perimetric border are in drawn metal, bronze satin finish. The free cushion armrest allows to customize and modify the configuration of the sofa. Furthermore, the modular elements are also available with high arm or angular elements. The bench element, always covered, can have a laying top in marble calacatta oro, emperador, portoro or in black cowhide. Completely removable covers, except for leather version.
